

Columbus Sportsman's Association

Long Range Training Class

Saturday May 11, 2019

Where: W10924 Breyer Rd., Columbus, WI www.csa12.com

When: 9:00 am. to 2:00pm.

What you will learn...

1. Mil Dot and MOA systems of measurement.
2. Exterior Ballistics.
3. Ranging Distance.
4. Reading the Wind.
5. Putting it all together to make the shot at any distance.

What you will need....

Study Materials

1. Paper or notebook.
2. Calculator.
3. Pen & Pencil.

At the Range...

1. A rifle* you can comfortably shoot 50 rounds with that has a scope suitable for long range.
2. A spotting scope if you need one.
3. 50 rounds of the same ammo. No Full Metal Jackets.
4. Rest, Bi-Pod, and or bags you intend to use.
5. Ear & Eye protection.
6. Ballistic data for your rifle 350-600 yards.
7. Range note book.

Class Breakdown

8:00 am. – 11:00 pm. Classroom instruction.

11:00 pm. – 2:00 pm. Range qualification. (350-600 yards.)

Suggested pre-class study. <http://www.shooterready.com/lrsdemo.html>

* Rifle must shoot groups of 2" or less at 100 yards.

Class Fee: $50.00, Cash or Check payable to Columbus Sportsman's Association.